

Rationing Of Meat Starts; Yankees Must Tighten Belts

Washington, March 29 (AP)—Wartime belt-tightening really hit home today as rationing of meat, butter and allied products began. New coupons costs on processed fruits and vegetables also went into effect.

The average American, who has been one of the world's biggest per capita consumers of meat could buy pork, beef, lamb or mutton today only on the 16 points of the red A stamps in his No. 2 ration book.

Meat-planning problems of the housewife were doubly tough today because many of the coupon values of processed foods that she tried so hard to learn during the last four weeks were changed this morning, some up and some down.

Beans Are Higher
On the bright side, she could buy prunes, raisins and other dry fruits and apple juice without coupons. She could also buy other fruits and vegetable juices and dehydrated soups at reduced coupon costs.

But the old standby of canned baked beans was higher in point value, and other increases made it more difficult to buy canned fresh lima beans, catsup, and canned applesauce, fruit salad and cocktails, peaches and pineapple.

The A stamps may be saved, if desired, and used any time through April 30 along with other red stamps becoming valid each week in that period. Expiration date of fifth week stamps has not been fixed yet.

For processed fruits and vegetables, canned soups and baby food—through Wednesday, use blue A, B or C stamps in Ration Book No. 2, and at any time until the end of April also use blue D, E and F stamps.

Meat Shortage?
The problem of buying meat today also was complicated by the fact that many stores probably had none on hand.

In the meantime, game, poultry and fresh fish are rationed. Also rationed are soft cheeses (including cottage and cream cheese), milk, cereals, fresh fruits and vegetables, bread and other bakery products, corn syrup, figs, jams and jellies, molasses, olives, peanut butter, pickles, potato salad, spaghetti and macaroni, spices and soft drinks.

The 16 points per person available this week on the red stamps must be weighed in consideration of the fact that most popular steaks and chops cost 8 points per pound; roasts, 5 to 9 points; stew meat, 4 to 6; hamburger (made exclusively from scraps and discarded cuts), 5. Sliced bacon is 8 points per pound, and the same value applies to butter and cheese. Margarine, lard and other shortenings cost 5, and canned fish 7 points per pound. Slices of ready to eat ham were 11 point luxuries.

Economy Values
For coupon economy, there are spare ribs at 4 points per pound; pigs feet, 1; brains, 4 for veal or 3 for beef, lamb and pork; beef liver at 6 and pork liver at 5 points per pound.

If they are to be found, cans of fish may be sold again for the first time in six weeks, and small cans of salmon, tuna, shrimp, crab meat and oysters appeared to be 3-point bargains. This may ease some of the difficulties in Lenten menus, although.

"RUN" ON MEAT HERE SATURDAY

"I never saw such a rush," one Gettysburg meat dealer said today in referring to the efforts of countians to secure meat and meat products over the week-end.

Hundreds of customers visited meat markets and grocery stores selling meat, to secure unrationed quantities of the food. Rationing of all meat and meat products went into effect today.

Most of the local dealers ran out of many types of meat, with several reporting they were completely sold out early Saturday night. A few reported that they had secured replenishments for some of their stocks this morning. Others stated they had been unable to obtain meat as yet.

Run Out of Meat
The "run" on meat began Friday, dealers said, and reached its peak by Saturday. Some meat market owners reported persons waiting outside when they opened Saturday morning.

At least four stores sold out early Saturday night. Many persons are reported to have visited store after store in search of meat.

Many of the customers were unable to obtain the slices of meat they sought, after the supplies began to run low. Nearly all however bought what other meat was available instead, dealers said.

Most of the dealers reported their supplies were lower than normal when the rush began, and that they had not been able to obtain their normal supply.

COUNTY SHORT ONE FOURTH OF RED CROSS FUND

Adams countians must subscribe more than one-fourth of its Red Cross War Relief Fund quota before the close of business Wednesday if it expects to "go over the top" in the current campaign.

This was revealed when Red Cross officials checked donations over the week-end which brought the total subscribed thus far in the drive to $13,922.46, leaving a balance of $4,777.54 still to be raised to reach the goal of $18,700 set for this, the first county in the state.

The largest amount received over the week-end was from the East Berlin, Abbottstown, Hampton areas. Charles Gentzler, chairman of that district, reported subscriptions totaling $125.30.

Several Unreported

There are several other districts as yet unreported. It was hoped that their subscriptions would reach the Red Cross headquarters here today but canvassers report that they have further calls to make in their house-to-house canvass before they tabulate and report their final donations.

The campaign is scheduled to close Wednesday night and in most counties in the state this will hold. However, local officials believe that they will have to extend their drive for several additional days in order to reach their goal.

The Red Cross received a donation from Mrs. P. M. Mishler, nurses home, of $5. With the donation was a letter, expressing her wish that "the donation could be five times that amount." A $10 donation in addition to previous contributions.

was received from Miss Ruth A. McIlhenny. Mrs. M. Hadwin Fischer also gave $10.
A number of individuals who have already given $5 or $10 have followed with a second contribution, and many others will have to follow that example if the quota is to be met, the Red Cross stated today. A number of persons have promised additional donations after April 1, but the number promised so far will not be enough by far to make up the deficiency.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Admissions to the Warner hospital over the week-end included Mrs. Robert Asper, Aspers R. D.; Mrs. D. E. Hess, Reservoir street; Samuel Frazer, Jr., Gettysburg college; Mrs. Paul Meals, Gardners; David G. Rudisill, Littlestown R. 2; Mrs. Charles Hahn, Taneytown, and Mrs. Clarence J. Rausher, Guernsey. Mrs. Alice Eiker, Carlisle street, and Dr. Ralph D. Wickerham, East Broadway, were discharged.

COLLECT NEARLY CARLOAD OF TIN

Nearly a carload of tin cans has been collected by the Adams County Salvage committee, it was announced today by O. H. Benson, salvage chairman. Among the principal centers where the collection took place was Gettysburg, where nearly half a carload has been secured by the committee under the direction of Dr. J. Walter Coleman.

A large number of cans has been collected by students at the Cash-town consolidated school under the direction of chairman Clyde McCauslin. Biglerville also is reported to have collected several tons. Plans of the committee are to send the first carload from the county in April.

Large quantities of silk and nylon hose also have been contributed. The large single collection has been made in Gettysburg, with the committee under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Dalbey obtaining over 500 pounds of stockings.

Banquet Ticket Sale Ends At 6 P. M.

The ticket sale for the testimonial banquet to be tendered the championship Gettysburg high school basketball team Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Hotel Gettysburg, will close this evening at 6 o'clock, it was announced today by Mares Sherman, chairman of the committee in charge.

"It is expected that approximately 180 persons will attend the dinner," Mr. Sherman said.

A meeting of the committee will be held in the Chamber of Commerce office this evening at 8 o'clock at which time members will turn in tickets and money collected during the sale.

RAFFENSPERGER PLACES SECOND IN LEAGUE MEET

George Raffensperger, Jr., Gettysburg high school senior, placed second among five contestants in the after-dinner speaking competition at the annual banquet, Saturday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg, given by Gettysburg college for the members of the Southern Pennsylvania Forensic league.

First place was won by Betsy Heagey, Mechanicsburg. The general theme for the after-dinner talks was "Voices of Liberty." Miss Heagey spoke on "Thomas Jefferson" and George Raffensperger on "Winston Churchill."

The other contestants and their subjects follow: Rodney Eyster, West York, "Patrick Henry"; Robert Jacoby, Carlisle, "Abraham Lincoln"; and Nancy Long, Hanover, "Franklin D. Roosevelt."

At 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon teams from Mechanicsburg and Hanover high schools debated the league question: "Resolved that a federal world government should be established." The Mechanicsburg and Hanover teams competed in the finals as the district winners of preliminary meets. Hanover won the judges' decision.

Shorten Program

The Mechanicsburg squad argued the affirmative side of the question. Members of the team were George Wagener, Forrest Trunbore and Lois Rector. The negative debaters from Hanover were Rose Eerner and James Walinger.

Because of the necessity for shortening the program for the final contests that in former years occupied a Saturday morning, afternoon and evening, the contests in extemporaneous speaking and declamation were omitted this year.

About 50 persons attended the Saturday evening banquet with Dr. Thomas L. Cline of the college faculty acting as toastmaster. Dean W. E. Tilberg spoke as the representative of Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, the college president. Camp Hill was the only school in the league not represented on Saturday.

Former Countian Now With WAACS

Miss Isabelle Rife, formerly of near Orrtanna, recently joined the WAACS at Adrian, Michigan, and is now stationed at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Miss Rife is a graduate of Gettysburg high school, attended Gettysburg college for two years and was graduated from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, in 1933.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hess, Reservoir street, announce the birth of a daughter, Jennifer Louise, at the Warner hospital Sunday evening.

A son was born at the hospital today to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Asper, Aspers R. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meals, Gardners, announce the birth of a daughter at the hospital Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hahn, Taneytown, announce the birth of a son Sunday at the hospital.

SHERIFF'S SALE

The property of F. I. and Rachael Thompson, Franklin township, sold Saturday from the steps of the court house at Sheriff's sale by Deputy Sheriff Blaine E. Bixler brought $150. The two acre property in Franklin township, was bought by William Cole, of that township.

WILL PROBATED

A will in the estate of the late Susan Jane Hamilton, late of Cumberland township, has been entered for probate at the court house. Miss E. Ruth Hamilton, Gettysburg, is named as executrix.

1194 VICTORY GARDENS GOAL FOR THIS AREA

The Adams County Victory Garden committee will seek to establish 1,194 gardens in the county this spring, it was announced today by William M. Lott, chairman of the committee for the Adams county Council of Defense.

The number of gardens sought is three times the number of victory gardens in the county last year when only 398 plots were planted. Last year only 78.3 acres were put into production for gardens, Mr. Lott stated. 391 persons planted gardens and several put out two plots.

Use Every Plot

"While the county quota is 1,194 gardens," Lott said, "the county committee is going to make every effort to see that every piece of suitable ground is put into garden. Every one of the 8,000 families in the county should have a garden. If the land is too poor where a person lives, or if he lives in an apartment, he should take advantage of ground offered by various patriotic persons for victory garden use.

Plans for the gardens should be started immediately, he stated. He cautioned against waiting until the last minute and "then rushing out to the backyard to start a garden with a great burst of enthusiasm but without careful planning."

Suggested Items

The Victory Garden committee of the local councils of defense is the official organizations set up in each community to assist war gardeners with technical advice and instructions. Gardeners should register at the committee's headquarters and obtain printed material suggesting the kinds of vegetables and the type of garden that should be grown.

The "goal" vegetables for every victory garden this year are tomatoes, carrots, beets, lettuce, and string beans. For large plots, additional crops recommended are sweet corn, peas, lima beans and potatoes. All of these are vegetables that are being drawn from our domestic supply for war use.

ONE OF OLDEST BANKERS MARKS 81ST BIRTHDAY

The staff of the First National Bank, Saturday, honored its oldest member, and one of the oldest bankers in the country, Vice President J. Elmer Musselman.

A large basket of flowers was presented to Mr. Musselman on the occasion of his 81st birthday on Sunday. He was born March 28, 1862 at Fairfield.

Mr. Musselman, who is a member of the Fifty Year club, of the National Bankers association, and one of the few men in the country who has served as a banker for more than 50 years, this year celebrated the 59th anniversary of his joining the staff of the First National Bank. After graduating from Pennsylvania college, now Gettysburg college, in 1883, Mr. Musselman entered the First National as a clerk in 1884. He became a teller in 1896, assistant cashier in 1903, cashier in 1911 and has been vice president since 1921.

Changes In Town

He married Miss Euphemia D. Rogers, Fairfield, May 7, 1889, who died several years ago. They had six children.

There have been great changes in the town since he started at the bank, Mr. Musselman said today. When he went to work George Throne, president of the First National when it was organized in February 1864, was still in full charge of the bank. The show place of the town, outside of the battlefield, was the Springs Hotel, where the famous and near famous gathered during the summer for rest and medication. There was no well organized fire company, with the people of the town acting as volunteers when an alarm was sounded, to pull the lone hand-pumped fire truck and to serve in bucket brigades.

One of the great sights at the college was the observatory, now torn down, and there were only three college buildings, surrounded by the president's house and homes of professors, Mr. Musselman said.

Highlight of Year

Old Dorm, and Linnear hall were the main buildings. The college (Please Turn to Page 2)

Must Register Fats And Meat On Hand

Under the meat and fats rationing program institutional users in group two or three are required to submit to the board the quantity of meat and fats in pounds on hand at the close of business on March 28.

The board will add up those figures and convert the total poundage into points by multiplying it by five. The result in points is treated as the point inventory of meat and fats and will be entered in the space below Schedule A and deducted from the registrants' points allotment for the first allotment period.

COUNTY WOMEN ARE ENROLLED IN BOND DRIVE

Plans for the April drive to sell Adams county's quota of the $13,000,000 second war loan were outlined Saturday evening at a meeting of the War Finance committee. Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the new committee, made up of the two previous war bond selling units in the county, presided at the session held in the YWCA.

In announcing the personnel of the committee, which includes members from every town and hamlet in the county, Mr. Thomas said that it would have to better the record set by the two previous committees during the past 14 months. During that period the county War Savings Bond and Victory Fund committees sold $1,169,800 worth of bonds and stamps. The two previous committees sold $933,200 worth of bonds in 1942 and $155,700 in January and $80,900 in February of this year.

The sale of bonds during the past 14 months, was "remarkable" Mr. Thomas said "for the reason that most of the bonds were of a type of which no one person could purchase more than $5,000 worth during the year."

Women Will Help

The banks of the county purchased $870,000 worth of war bonds during the past year, and will be allowed a larger participation during the coming drive, he stated.

Much of the activity of the county committee will be handled by women, Thomas said. The women are to organize in every community in conjunction with the local committee.

Mrs. Henry T. Bream was announced as the chairman of the women's group to succeed Mrs. A. Harrison Barr. Mrs. Barr, who announced that she was forced under doctor's orders to resign her post as women's head in the county, said she would "assist in every way possible."

"More persons should be aware of the fact that they are helping not only the soldiers but themselves when they purchase bonds," Mr. Thomas said. "The bonds will be the greatest backlog the country could possibly have from an economic standpoint. After the war those who have placed sufficient amounts in war bonds should be able to weather the sharp economic readjustment necessary to turn back to civilian activities," he added.

Mrs. Barr introduced Mrs. James Loewen, of Harrisburg, head of the women's section of the War Finance (Please Turn to Page 5)

NEW TAX BONDS ARE APPROVED

Four tax collectors' bonds were approved by the Adams county court Saturday. The bonds were those of John F. Feeser, Union township; Roy C. Garber, Hamilton township; A. D. Sheely, Arendtsville, and E. J. Sinner, East Berlin.

A libel in divorce was filed by John P. Butt, Esq., for Mrs. Constance E. Kinneman, McSherrytown, versus John A. Kinneman, Hanover. The charge is cruel and barbarous treatment. The libel is returnable April 26.

The Kinnemans previously had been in court on a charge by Mrs. Kinneman that her husband had stopped payment of a $7-a-week support order in June, 1931, and that $4,172 was owing for support. The order had been handed down February 9, 1929. A court opinion was handed down last Monday asking Kinneman to show cause why the $500 bond he had posted when ordered to pay his wife support should not be forfeited.

Deep Fortifications Collapse Along 25 Mi. Front; Nazis Fall Back

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, March 29 (AP)—Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's Mareth line defenses have collapsed under the pounding of the British Eighth army and his forces are retreating northward with heavy losses, it was announced today.

Scattered pockets of resistance were left behind, but Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's infantrymen were reported mopping them up, one by one, as Allied aerial squadrons joined ground forces in powerful attacks along the Axis escape corridor.

The Mareth line broke on a 25-mile front at three points, ranging from 20 to 30 miles from the Axis supply port of Gabes.

Mareth, Matmata and Toujane fell to British Eighth Army troops yesterday as the Axis gave way before the joint threat of the frontal offensive and the flanking drive to El Hamma, a communique said.

These were strongholds at the northern end of the Mareth line, the fortifications on which Rommel depended to delay the closing of the Allied noose.

Allies Gain Elsewhere

"The attack which was launched on the afternoon of March 26 on the enemy's strong position south of El Hamma has forced the enemy to withdraw from the Mareth area," the communique said in opening its account of the victory.

The southern front developments were coupled with Allied gains both at the center and in the north.

United States troops made progress yesterday through difficult country east of El Guetar in one movement of the push toward the Axis escape corridor across the Gabes plain.

"In the Maknassy and Fondouk areas (to the north) our patrols were very active," the communique announced.

Capture Prisoners

"In the north in the Djebel Abiod area (some 50 miles southwest of Bizerte) local advances were made and a considerable number of prisoners were taken."

Falling back toward the area of Gabes, 20 miles northwest of the village of Mareth, Rommel's troops were bombed and shot up in smashing attacks by Allied air forces.

The collapse came on the ninth day of Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's offensive against the mountainous Mareth line positions. It was the same time that Montgomery's men, artillery and bombers needed to break through Rommel's first line at El Alamein, 1,500 miles farther east.

Reports from the battlefield said Rommel was pulling back in an apparent last minute effort to avoid the trap set by British and United States troops in his rear from El Hamma, El Guetar, Maknassy and Fondouk.

6,000 Are Captured

The communique reported that more than 6,000 Axis soldiers had been captured since the opening gun of the Mareth line offensive was fired March 26.

The attack upon El Hamma, which cut to 15 miles the Axis corridor past Gabes, was made with "the powerful and very effective support of our air forces," the communique said.

It reported the enemy lost heavily in tanks, guns and motor transport as well as men.

"Many Germans were taken prisoner," it said. "Fierce fighting continued in this area during March 27, with our troops making good progress."

"The whole of the strong organized defenses of the Mareth positions are now in our hands and our troops on March 28 occupied Mareth, Toujane and Matmata."

War Board Lists Farm Machinery

One hundred and ninety-five pieces of farm machinery—ranging from threshers and ensilage cutters to cream separators and feed mills—have been listed at the office of the Adams County Farm Board as available to other farmers on a rental basis. Other items on the list are for sale.

Harrison F. Snyder, chairman of the War Board, said his office is listing the used machinery on hand throughout the county in an effort to make the present supply of farm equipment serve the greatest possible number of farmers, offsetting to some extent the very limited supply of new machinery.

The battle lines in Tunisia are shifting rapidly. General Montgomery's British Eighth army has broken Rommel's Mareth line along a 25 mile front (2 and 3) and have captured El Hamma while pushing toward Gabes. Rommel is fleeing northward where he faces the possible menace of an American force (1) now occupying Maknassy and moving toward Stax where it hopes to cut Rommel from his northern forces. In the north the Allies are pinching the Boche and driving him toward the sea.

Ag. Counsellor To Address Rotarians

Dr. N. L. Nixon, Philadelphia, agricultural counsellor will be the speaker this evening at the Farmer-Rotary night program to be held at the YWCA at 6 o'clock.

Doctor Nixon will speak on "Rural-Urban Cooperation." Each member of Rotary is expected to have a farmer as guest.

The rural-urban committee of Rotary, which arranged the program, includes Samuel G. Spangler, J. Price Oyler, George Hoffman and O. H. Benson.

Hold Funeral Rites For Mrs. D. Ford

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah H. Ford, wife of Dean Ford, who died last Monday morning in the Hanover hospital, were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Hunterstown Methodist church with the pastor, the Rev. Earl N. Rowe, officiating.

Interment was made in the Great Conewago Presbyterian cemetery.

The pallbearers were Merle Little, Clair Sanders, Carson Spellman, Paul Dellinger, William Little and Albert Plank.

NOW IN AUSTRALIA

Pvt. John Nary, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nary, McKnightstown, is now stationed somewhere in Australia.

Chimney Fire On M. C. Jones Farm

Gettysburg firemen were called out this morning about 9:30 o'clock to put out a chimney blaze at the M. C. Jones farm, two miles north of town along the Harrisburg road. A line of water from a booster tank was used to put out the flames. No damage was reported.

The firemen were called to the new plant of the Central Chemical company along the Lincoln highway, a half mile east of here, Saturday evening about 8 o'clock, where overheated lime had charred sidewalk timbers. Services of the firemen were not needed but a careful watch was kept throughout the night.

Infant Interred At Rites Today

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock for Marlene Grace Deatrach, three-months-old daughter of George M. and Goldie Laughman Deatrach, Hanover, who died Saturday morning at 11:10 o'clock at her home.

Surviving besides the parents are one brother and two sisters, George and Gloria Mary and Georgianna, at home; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Deatrach, Gettysburg, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Laughman, Hanover.

The services this afternoon were held from the Deatrach home on Elm avenue. Interment was made in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Hanover.

BRITISH BREAK ROMMEL'S LINE IN NORTH AFRICA

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The cracking of the Mareth line by General Montgomery's great Eighth Army—one of the sensational feats of the war—has placed Marshal Rommel and the entire Axis force in Tunisia in dire peril from which there would seem to be no escape.

The break has come on a twenty-five mile front on the powerful coastal end of the line, and dispatches indicate that the Nazi marshal is making a run for the north in an effort to join up with General Von Arnim before he can be cut off. His chances of escaping the trap which the Allies laid for him didn't seem good, for American and British forces were northwest of him and driving hard for the coast in an effort to close the trap.

Pattin Advances

Our young fighters under General Patton had been doing a workmanlike job over the week-end. Patton not only held steady the wedge which he is trying to drive to the coast in the Sousse-Sfax sector, but even advanced it some on its northern edge by capturing Fondouk in a surprise attack.

Meantime the flying column which Montgomery got round the southern end of the Mareth line had made a sensational advance to El Hamma, about twenty miles west of the important port of Gabes. It looks as though he was straining to capture Gabes, which is Rommel's nearest coastal base. If Montgomery could reach Gabes before Rommel's main force raced northward, the marshal's predicament would become increasingly grave.

During the week-end all the Allied forces, from far north to extreme south, have been battering the Axis. Thus there has been a coordinated effort which has put the maximum pressure on the enemy line, and prevented the Hitlerites from concentrating against any one of the Allies. This grand partnership is the foundation for today's success.

Costly Victory

The main drama, of course, has been down on the Mareth line. There Montgomery has continued the tactics he employed at El Alamein, Egypt, when he first routed Rommel. Having struck a stone-wall defense in the fortifications close to the coast, the British leader made a lightning stab at another strong point a few miles to the southwest, just below the Mareth highway.

Details are lacking, but it seems apparent that, having made a dent, he then employed the difficult and bloody tactics of leveraging his way forward until he finally broke through to the rear and turned the enemy's line on both flanks of the hole. That's the way he went through at El Alamein.

If Patton reaches the coast before Rommel can race through the open road along the coast, the Axis is likely to be divided and neatly cooped up in two compartments, ready for the finale. It isn't going to be as easy in the doing as in the saying, however, for both Rommel and his colleague in the north, may be expected to put up a terrific fight. We shall have to pay heavily for the victory which will be ours.

SERVICE FLAG IS DEDICATED

A service flag with 114 stars, representing the members of the parish who have been called into the armed services, was dedicated Sunday at St. James Lutheran church. The flag will remain in the front of the church until victory.

The ritual of the Lutheran church was performed and a talk was given by C. Arthur Brame, commander of the local American Legion post, in the dedicatory service.

The service opened with a professional of flags through the church. The American flag, carried by James Bernheisel, of the United States Army, led the procession. Color guards for the American flag were George Coshun, commander of the local camp of the Sons of Union Veterans, and George Rightmyer, commander of the local post of the United Spanish War Veterans. The service flag was carried by William Fleck, of the United States Navy. Howard Sheffer, representing the American Legion and John Hewitt, representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars formed the color guard. The Christian flag was carried by Mahlon Hartzell, Jr., of the Army with a Boy Scout, Clyde Williams, and a Girl Scout, Janet McSherry, as color guards.

The flag was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wentz. The Rev. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of the church, officiated at the service. He had as his sermon, "The Challenge of the Times."

METHODISTS ELECT

Trustees were elected by the First Methodist church yesterday. The trustees are Prof. William F. Quillian, Charles W. Cook and Robert E. Berkheimer. There are nine trustees of the church with three men elected each year. All terms are for three years.

Weddings

Trimmer-Smyser

Miss Lucille May Smyser, daughter of Mrs. J. A. Smyser, Harrisburg, will become the bride of Ensign Paul Wilbur Trimmer, son of Jacob E. Trimmer, of Carlisle. Wednesday noon in the chapel of the Riverside church, New York city.

The ceremony will follow the graduation exercises from the midshipmen school at Columbia university, where the bridegroom will be a member of the graduating class.

Miss Smyser, who is a teacher of languages at Susquehanna Township high school, was graduated from John Harris high school and from Gettysburg college, where she was a member of Chi Omega Sorority, Tau Kappa Alpha forensic society and Kappa Delta Epsilon education fraternity.

Ensign Trimmer is a graduate of Carlisle high school and of Gettysburg college. In both high school and college he starred in basketball. During his senior year at Gettysburg he was awarded the Beahm award as the outstanding athlete at the school. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He is scheduled to report to Recognition school at Columbus, Ohio, on April 15.

Miss Smyser is now in New York to attend the graduation ball on the Prairie State, midshipmen's training ship, and other graduation events.

Starnes-Miller

Miss Lillie E. Miller and Paul Starnes, both of Gettysburg, were married at the Church of God parsonage, Westminster, Maryland, last Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Franklin P. Brose. The couple was attended by the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Miller.

Coleman-Stark

Miss Ruth E. Stark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Stark, York, and Frederick C. Coleman, son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Coleman, Rajahmundry, India, were married Sunday afternoon in St. Peter's Lutheran church, York. The Rev. Howard O. Walker, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony.

The attendants were Miss Helen Stark, sister of the bride, and Borden E. Folkner, a student at Gettysburg Lutheran seminary, who is a fraternity brother of the groom.

The bride wore a rose colored dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Miss Helen Stark wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. She also wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Coleman is a graduate of William Penn high school and Wilson college. Mr. Coleman is a graduate of Gettysburg college and a medical student at the University of Pennsylvania.

Rose-Overholtzer

Miss Mary Jane Overholtzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Overholtzer, Taneytown R. 2, and Corporal Raymond Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rose, Breckenridge street, Gettysburg, were married Saturday evening in Westminster, Md., by Rev. Leonard Enzer, pastor of the Methodist church there. The couple was unattended.

DEATHS

Charles F. Kemper

Charles F. Kemper, 74, a retired miller, died at 10 o'clock Sunday night at his home at Menges Mills. Death was caused by pneumonia following an illness of four weeks.

Mr. Kemper had made his home at Menges Mills for the past 45 years. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Kate Stonestifer Kemper; 10 children, William J. Kemper, St. Louis; Ralph L. Kemper and Mrs. John S. Krape, York; Mrs. Robert Amspacher, Mrs. Alvin Jacobs and Harry Kemper, Hanover; Mrs. Victor St. Martin, Dundalk, Md.; Mrs. William Yohe, Mrs. Paul Diehl and Charles Kemper Jr., all of Menges Mills; 24 grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, a brother, Bernard Kemper, near York Springs, and one sister, Mrs. Emma Jacobs, East Berlin.

The funeral will be held Wednesday with short services at the Sauter Funeral home, Spring Grove, at 2 p. m., and further rites at Mt. Carmel Lutheran church. The Rev. Robert Schiebel, pastor, will officiate. Interment will be made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Mrs. Grace Spath

Mrs. Grace Weaver Spath, 57, died suddenly Saturday morning at 4:30 o'clock at her home, Carlisle R. 2, near Carlisle Springs.

She was a native of Adams county, a daughter of the late David Weaver, and Mrs. Flora A. Davis, Aspers.

Surviving are her husband, Frank Spath, Dillsburg; one daughter, Mrs. Marie Thaler, Iceland, New Jersey; her mother, Mrs. Davis, Aspers; one sister, Mrs. John R. Taylor, Aspers; two brothers, Francis A. Weaver, Marion, Ohio, and James H. Weaver, Gettysburg, Maryland. Two grandchildren also survive.

FOOD DIRECTOR

Washington, March 29 (AP)—Chester C. Davis officially became wartime food administrator this afternoon and promptly tackled his big job in a series of conferences on production and distribution problems. Tomorrow, he expects to see President Roosevelt. Even before taking his oath, he had conferred at length with Secretary of Agriculture Wickard.

OPERATED UPON

Mrs. Glenn Guise, Arendtsville, submitted to a major operation at the Wagner hospital Saturday.

SPOTTER POST EXPENSES MORE THAN RECEIPTS

Expenses for the airplane spotter station on the roof of the First National bank building have exceeded receipts, it was stated at a meeting of the staff held in the office of Richard Lighter in the court house Sunday afternoon.

W. J. Stallsmith, chief observer for the post, reported that expenditures for the post have exceeded the $452.35 donated for the station. A report prepared by the treasurer, Judge W. C. Sheely, revealed expenditures of $451.83, but that figure does not include an electric heater recently purchased. Mr. Stallsmith said.

List Expenditures

The list of expenditures, as announced by Judge Sheely included, John C. Irvin, carpenter, labor, $162.05; H. T. Maring, flashing, $1.44; Joseph E. Smith, electrical supplies and labor, $46.12; Edmund Thomas, painting, $10.55; George M. Zerling, hardware, $10.77; T. J. Winebrenner and Son, roof shingles, $11; C. M. Wolf, lumber, $132.73; Citizen's Oil company, roofing paper, $2.17, and H. and H. machine shop, cutting steel stairway, $75.

A number of changes were made in the weekly schedule. The new appointees will be notified of their hours for service by the various captains, it was stated. The officers acknowledged the receipt of two pairs of Polaroid glasses from Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph H. Riley.

The post also acknowledged the receipt of a bound roster book from William Beales and an additional $15 from the Reaser furniture company.

ANNOUNCE DAR ESSAY WINNERS

Miss Mary McMillon, 35 York street, and Miss Betty Rosensteel, Steinwehr avenue, Gettysburg high school seniors, were announced this afternoon as the winners of the annual essay contest conducted by the Gettysburg chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

First prize of $10 will be given Miss McMillon and second prize of $5 will be presented to Miss Rosensteel on May 12 when the DAR chapter presents its annual program at the high school. Announcement of the winners was made today by Miss Helen L. Cope, chairman of the DAR committee on national defense through patriotic education.

Miss McMillon, who last year won the DAR American history prize at the high school, as a junior, recently ended a one-year term as editor of the Maroon and White, school newspaper. She is a member of the staff of the Cannon-Aid, the school annual; and belongs to the school debating squad, the school student council and the high school chorus.

The winner of second place is a former member of the Maroon and White staff, belongs to the school chorus, was vice president of the Mask and Wig dramatic club and held membership on the student council and the cabinet of the Girls' Athletic association.

Theme of the essays, written several months ago by the seniors, was "My Part in the National Defense." The judges were Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh and Mrs. Donald P. McPherson, Jr.

Emmitsburg Lad Back In Action

PFC Ralph F. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kelly, of Emmitsburg, was one of three Marylanders reported by the War department as wounded in action and now back in active service.

The announcement was not disturbing to his parents, who had been advised some time ago of his shrapnel wound and of his return to combat duty in North Africa.

By strange coincidence, Private First Class Kelly was returned to service under the command of Capt. Eston White, of Fairfield, a graduate of Gettysburg college.

Private First Class Kelly was wounded in one leg by a shrapnel splinter and the War department advised his parents that his injury was slight as attested by the fact that he was quickly restored to combat duty.

In letters to relatives Kelly has expressed himself as well pleased with the Army and welcomed the opportunity to see action in Africa.

home, York Springs R. 2, from the effects of a cerebral hemorrhage which he suffered Friday.

Mr. Markey had lived in Adams county for the last 13 years, having moved here from near Baltimore. He was a son of the late Christopher and Rachel (Shaw) Markey.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Cornelia Markey; these children, Peter F., Baltimore; Virgil, at home; Thomas F., Baltimore, and Lulu I. Markey, at home; two grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Anna R. Fuller, Baltimore.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Pitten-tun funeral home in York Springs with the Rev. Earl N. Rowe, pastor of the York Springs Methodist church, officiating. Interment was made at Sunnyside cemetery at York Springs.

SCOUTS ENJOY CAMPING TRIP

A week-end of local Boy Scout activities that opened Friday evening with participation in a York-Adams area test mobilization ended Saturday evening with the closing of a "green bar" camping expedition by members of Troop 77 on the battlefield.

Scoutmaster Jack Cessna and six members of Troop 77 spent Friday night and Saturday camping in Pitzer's woods along West Confederate avenue, returning to Gettysburg Saturday evening. During the camp period the scouts participated in demonstrations and discussions concerning camp site selection, tent pitching of both wall and pup tents, rope climbing, camp planning, packing knapsacks and submitted to cooking tests and camp inspections. Boys who made the trip were Sydney Poppay, Jr., and William Snyder of the Panther patrol; Robert Schweizer and Kimon Mitchell of the Pine Tree patrol, and Herbert Sollenberger and John Donnemeyer.

Talks on Fishing

In the surprise mobilization Friday evening, scout leaders opened sealed orders at 7:15 o'clock calling for immediate mobilization of all members. In 24 minutes, 15 members of Troop 77 and six members of Troop 78 had assembled at the local postoffice, the designated meeting place.

After the mobilization the members of Troop 77 went to the Methodist church scout rooms for their weekly meeting. Vernon Corle, a member of the troop committee, talked to the scouts on the requirements for the angling merit badge. He displayed fishing equipment and described methods of fishing with flies, live bait and plugs.

Lower Merion Captures State PIAA Cage Title For Third Consecutive Year

FARRELL LOSES BY ONE POINT IN HARD GAME

Philadelphia, March 29 (AP)—Lower Merion high school reigned today as state high school basketball champion for the third straight year—a record which may stand for a long, long time—after a hard-won 29-28 victory over Farrell, scrappy western Pennsylvania titleholder.

In turning back the Section 10 kinglypin before nearly 10,000 thrill-chilled fans at the Penn Palestra Saturday night, the Ardmore Aces coached by Bill Anderson also established another PIAA record in winning the state diadem for the fourth time. Hazleton took the crown three times, twice in succession, since the schoolboy classic began in 1920.

"Early Foot"
An athletic asset listed in the lexicon of racing fans as "early foot" had much to do with the one-point triumph.

Anderson's lads hit the nets for two quick field goals in each quarter of the game, but were able to garner only four others throughout the battle. Each of these spurts enabled the champions to get the jump on the proteges of Tudor Lewis, former Westminster college star.

The winning point was scored through an unusual technicality. Lower Merion, sporting a 28-20 lead with less than five minutes left to play, began to have grave misgivings as Farrell dropped in three long field goals. Then Vernon Young, Lower Merion's speedy negro guard, drew a foul and stepped to the charity line with less than half a minute to go.

His mates rushed over to the officials with a request to take the ball out of bounds instead, but the arbiters ruled that Young had to shoot inasmuch as he had already taken his position at the line.

Scores Foul Toss
Then, with tight-lipped fans hanging to the edges of their seats, Young calmly dropped the ball through the cords. Seconds later Steve Skendrovich, husky Farrell guard, dropped in his fifth field goal as the gun sounded, but it was nothing more than an anti-climax to the hardest battle the undefeated Merionites encountered this season.

Farrell had a 7-4 lead at the end of the first quarter, with Lower Merion in front at halftime, 12-11. Each club tallied 12 field goals but had Farrell been able to do better than four conversions in 13 free throws, this bright new page in state scholastic sports records might still be unwritten.

Amateurs Will Keep Ball Parks Open

New York, March 29 (AP)—There'll be plenty of baseball in the "bushes" this summer although many minor league club owners have shrugged off their worries about signing players and meetings pay rolls by suspending operations for the duration.

In nearly every league where organized professional baseball has been dropped, some cities are planning semi-pro, industrial and amateur leagues to keep the ball parks open this summer.

Only a few of the operators of pro clubs are concerned in these merely leased municipally owned parks, however, for most of them parks and they no longer have to worry about maintaining them. In a lot of cases, high school football is expected to pay for the upkeep.

York High Wins Swimming Title

State College, Pa., March 29 (AP)—York high captured the mythical state swimming championship here Saturday, scoring 35 points to 29 for Erie East, defending titlist.

Lee Woehling, Norristown, broke the PIAA 100-yard backstroke record with a 1:03.9 performance.

Other winners:
50-yard free style—Etter, Erie East; 100-yard backstroke—Kirby, Allentown; 220-yard free style—Pulakos, Erie East; 100-yard free style—Potts, York; fancy diving—Stockton, Lancaster; 100-yard medley relay—Allentown (Smith, Kirby, Collahan); 200-yard free style relay—Erie East (Robasky, Brugger, Krajczinski, Pulakos).

TRACK COACH RESIGNS

New Wilmington, Pa., March 29 (AP)—Because of loss of manpower and lack of competition have practically ended minor sports at Westminster College, Joe Ferris has resigned his post as the school's track and field coach, effective April 1. Ferris attended Westminster and Penn State College. When he returned to Westminster in 1939, he was, at 21, one of the youngest coaches in the country.

GYMNASTIC CHAMPS

State College, Pa., March 29 (AP)—Pottsville High school won the PIAA gymnastic championship here Saturday, with Matt Steidle, Pottsville senior, winning three events to be designated the outstanding individual performer.

Wakefield, Bridges Foresee Good Year

Evansville, Ind., March 29 (AP)—Dick Wakefield, the Detroit Tigers' $52,000 investment walked up to the veteran pitcher, Tommy Bridges, and said: "Uncle Tom, this is your 14th season and I want you to know that I think you'll win 20 games this year."

The slim righthander didn't seem too surprised by the remark, although his 1942 record was a mediocre 9-7.

Could be, could be," he retorted, "tell you what, Dick, if you think I'm still good enough for 20 I'll follow through by predicting a .350 batting mark for you and maybe more."

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 29 (AP)—Reporting on the basketball season at the Jacksonville, Florida, Naval Air Technical Training Center, Yeoman Carolus G. Anderson says that some 1,500 sailors and marines competed on 150 intra-mural teams and about 500 more played on outside courts.

"While the south is no basketball hotbed," he adds, "the Navy is doing its part to scatter seeds for future growth." . . . And when you think that Florida alone has hundreds of other military establishments, nearly all with court teams and leagues, it appears that there'll be more to the heralded post-war sports boom than just a few more folks going to games . . . it may mean real popularity for some sports in sections that never paid much attention to them before.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Whitey Guehrler, Atlantic City (N.J.) Press-Union: "Bowling Truman Carey was so angry when a pocket-hit produced a 5-6 split that he grabbed a ball off the rack, set it down at the foul line and kicked it down the alley. And what do you suppose happened? He made the 5-6 split. . . . Guess you could say that's one shot that was made with a foot to spare."

MONDAY MATINEE

The Hassett family of the Bronx (Buddy of the Yanks and the Navy, Billy of Georgetown and Danny of Manhattan) is coming up with another athlete. . . . Their dad says that 13-year-old Tommy is the best of the bunch, both at sports and singing. Pedro Montanez, ex-welterweight title contender from Puerto Rico, is doing all right with his bowling alleys in San Juan. . . . The Trenton, New Jersey, fair will get the harness racing futurities that were left homeless when the Army took over the Reading, Pa., fair grounds. . . . The Tigers claim to have baseball's best table tennis player in Roy Henshaw, who brought three personal paddles to their Evansville, Indiana, camp. . . . He learned the game from his old college classmate, Coleman Clark, a former national champion.

TOO MUCH MIDDLEWEIGHT

When Jimmy Conzelman, the Gicero of the Chicago Cardinals, made a speech for the Great Lakes gobs recently, Lieut. Commander Russell J. Cook presented him a shiny belt of the kind that Nat Fleischer doles out to boxing champions. . . . It seems that when Jimmy was at Great Lakes during the other World war—and he is now—he had won the middleweight title of the station. . . . Only Commander Cook remembered that Jimmy never had received the belt, and he got a better laugh than any of Conzelman's gags by insisting that the "Champ" should try it on as soon as it was presented.

SERVICE DEPT.

The newly-arrived WAACs at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, are likely to keep the regular soldiers busy defending their athletic laurels. The group includes First Leader Eve Evans, who was city tennis champion of Portsmouth, Ohio, had a 180 bowling average and was an all-star basketball player in the 1942 tri-state tournament, as well as several other athletically inclined gals. . . . When Cadet Bob Kennedy of the Iowa Navy Pre-Flight school, former White Sox third baseman, filled out his sports preference card this spring he listed basketball, track, football and swimming—but not baseball. . . . The card, of course, was ignored. . . . It takes more than a guy the size of big Bill Morgan, former Oregon footballer, to make the marines think twice. . . . When Bill arrived at Parris Island, South Carolina, there wasn't a uniform to fit his 240 pounds. . . . "Here's the largest uniform we have," he was told. "We'll fit you into it. That will be easier than making one."

WIN 4TH TRACK TITLE

Pittsburgh, March 29 (AP)—Mt. Lebanon high annexed six first places and tied for another to win its fourth straight WPIAL indoor track championship Saturday in Pitt track house. Mt. Lebanon had 49 points. Next in line were Wilkensburg with 17½ and Dormont with 16.

BLUEGE SAYS SENATORS ARE IMPROVED CLUB

By JUDSON BAILEY

College Park, Md., March 29 (AP)—There is only one manager making his major league debut this year and it belongs to Oswald L. (Ossie) Bluege of the Washington Senators. The one-time great third baseman of the Senators replaced another Washington favorite, Stanley Raymond (Bucky) Harris, who moved into the National league to lead the Philadelphia Phillies, and now the fans in the capital are waiting to see how the new act in their home talent show turns out.

Improved Club

Bluege is a quiet, colorless individual not given to extravagant opinions or actions, but he knows baseball and he believes that he has an improved ball club over the one which Harris had to mastermind last year.

His appraisal of the Senators' chances at this early date is, "we have a better team, so we ought to do better."

"We have problems to work out in the pitching staff and in the infield, but if we get the right answers we may get places. Our team is one of the fastest in the major leagues and it has one of the best outfields. "Now that we've got Gerry Priddy from the Yankees I think our infield will do all right. I expect to play him at second base."

New Players

"However, I'll probably use George Myatt at second a lot in spring training. I know what Priddy can do, but I've never seen Myatt play. He will have a chance at both second and third."

"I think I can go along with Johnny Sullivan at short. He made a lot of improvement after he came up from Chattanooga last summer. "It will mean a lot to us, of course, if (first baseman) Mickey Vernon can come back and hit again like he did in 1941. "Our outfield is set with George Case, Stan Spence and Bob Johnson—and I like Gene Moore, too."

COLLEGE GROUP TO HOLD MEET

The Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Association, of which Gettysburg college is a member, voted Saturday at a special meeting in Philadelphia, to conduct the annual track meet as a one-day affair at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Saturday, May 8.

Ten of the 18 members of the association indicated they will participate in the meet. They are: Haverford, defending champ, Rutgers, Lehigh, Lafayette, Muhlenberg, Swarthmore, Alfred, P. M. C. St. Joseph's and Gettysburg. Bucknell and Delaware may enter two or three athletes but Ursinus and Lebanon Valley are definitely out.

Although the Gettysburg college graduation will be held about two weeks before the meet, it is expected a number of the trackmen will be available to enter the competitions. The delegates went on record as favoring the participation of only regular students. Military or naval trainees are ineligible to represent the college at which they are stationed.

"In this way," explained C. E. Bilheimer, Gettysburg college athletic director and president of the association, "we will avoid any and all arguments afterwards as to which was the best team."

The Middle Atlantic States Association will hold its regular spring meeting in Philadelphia April 23, the Friday evening of the University of Pennsylvania Relay Carnival.

Racing Season In Nine-Day "Blackout"

New York, March 29 (AP)—Racing in the continental United States goes into a nine-day eclipse today for the first time since the original two-buck better broke the strap on his wallet.

When the New Orleans' fair grounds, Hot Springs' Oaklawn and California's Bay Meadows ushered out the last of the spectators Saturday they ended the turf sport in this country until April 8 when New York city's Jamaica opens.

PRE-FLIGHT MENTORS

Iowa, City, Ia., March 29 (AP)—Two former gridiron figures at the University of Pittsburgh will coach cadet teams in spring drills at the Navy Pre-Flight school here. The roster of coaches for 12 teams includes Ensign John Michelson, former Pitt backfield ace and later on the Brooklyn Dodgers staff, and Ensign Forrest Evashevski, who coached at Pitt after starring at Michigan and serving as head mentor of Hamilton college.

The first recorded ascent of Popocatepetl, Mexican volcano, was made in 1519, but the second did not take place until 1827.

Ex-Bullet Hurler Will Play For Penn

Ralph Cox, ace of the pitching staff of the Gettysburg college baseball team for the past several seasons, will play for the University of Pennsylvania this season.

Cox is a cadet member of the Preparatory Flight School at Penn and as a service man is eligible to play on the Penn varsity. He has been granted permission to practice daily from 4 to 5 p. m. and it is believed he may be granted permission to play full games.

Training Camp Briefs

Muncie, Ind.—The Pittsburgh Pirates so surprised Manager Frankie Frisch in Sunday's intra-club game that he ordered another contest for today.

The regulars, with Elbie Fletcher at first, Pete Coscarat second, Frank Gustine at short and Bob Elliott on third, handled 45 chances without a miscue. The team open its exhibition schedule Wednesday against the Ball State Teachers' college nine.

Cape Girardeau, Mo.—Stan Ferens, southpaw hurler who had given no indication of coming to terms with the St. Louis Browns, has been placed in 3-C by his Daragh, Pa., draft board and "frozen" in farm work for the duration.

Hershey, Pa.—Babe Dahlgren has played first base, third base and outfield and now he is manager Bucky Harris' choice to open the season as the Philadelphia Phillies' shortstop. He was tried in the position Sunday and proved adequate.

Bear Mountain, N. Y.—Joe Medwick, who says that 1943 will be his best year in the majors, blasted out a double and a home run yesterday as the Brooklyn Dodgers lost a 9 to 7 verdict to a team made up of Montreal and Durham, North Carolina players. Medwick drove in four runs.

College Park, Md.—A Washington cab-driver and a Baltimore semipro combined a pitch the Washington Senators' rookies to a 3 to 1 decision over the regulars yesterday. Earl Jennings and Chester Foreman were on the mound for the winners in the five-inning fray.

Wilmington, Del.—Al Brancato, who was the regular Philadelphia Athletic shortstop until he enlisted in the Navy a year ago, played with the Mack Reserves yesterday against the regulars. He was here on a brief visit.

Bucher Third In Camden Track Event

Wayne Bucher, Gettysburg college track speedster, took third place in the Middle Atlantic A.A.U. 600-yard championship event at Convention Hall, Camden, New Jersey, Friday night.

Bucher won his heat in 1:18.2 and held a margin of about 25 yards. In the second heat Williams, of Penn State, turned in a mark of 1:17.9 and a team-mate, Harrison, ran the distance in 1:18, which pushed Bucher into third place. The championship was determined by times established in the heats.

Farrell Fans Hold Welcome For Team

Farrell, Pa., March 29 (AP)—Farrell high school students held a rally today to honor their basketball team, which came within one point of winning the PIAA title, losing 28 to 29 Saturday night to Lower Merion at Philadelphia.

More than 5,000 townspeople and students, led by bands and city officials, greeted the squad last night upon its return from Philadelphia. Virtually all the 500 followers who attended the game returned on the train with the team.

Meet Tonight For Catholic Cage Title

Pittsburgh, March 29 (AP)—Philadelphia Roman Catholic school and Pittsburgh North Catholic high will meet tonight to decide the Class "A" title in the state's first diocesan schoolboy basketball tournament.

For Class "B" honors, Mt. Oliver St. Joseph, representing the Pittsburgh diocese, will play Tamaqua St. Jerome.

CAGE FINALS TONIGHT

New York, March 29 (AP)—Toledo and St. John's battle tonight at Madison Square Garden for the championship of the New York Invitation Basketball tournament. In the consolation game, Washington & Jefferson meets Fordham. Toledo eliminated the Presidents, 46-39, and St. John's trounced Fordham, 69-43, in semi-finals Saturday.

In 1870 during whiskey riots in Brooklyn, N. Y., local authorities called for the U. S. Marines to assist in the destruction of illicit stills.

Foul Tosses Cost Farrell State Cage Championship

By TED MEIER

Philadelphia, March 29 (AP)—Pennsylvania panorama of sports—news and gossip from here and there.

Farrell just missed beating Lower Merion for the coveted state PIAA basketball championship here Saturday night, but rooters of the Mercer county boys "cleaned up" on the betting.

The minute the game was over with the Ardmore Aces on top, 29 to 28, an excited Farrell fan, one of 600 who made the long trip across the state, jumped up from his seat and pocketed $500 in tens and twenties.

"I was a sucker to give five points," moaned the loser.

Miss 53 Shots

Before the game Tudor Lewis, coach of the Western Pennsylvania champs, declared if "our shots drop like they did against North Braddock Scott we've got a chance."

Right off the bat Farrell got in seven chances to one for Lower

Young Mother And Daughter, 6, Killed

Vineland, N. J., March 29 (AP)—Two persons were injured fatally yesterday in the collision of an automobile and a Pennsylvania-Reading seashore line train at the Garden road crossing three miles north of here.

Police Chief John Barsuglia of Landis township identified the victims as Mrs. Katherine Ohl, 26, Camden, and Arlene Marie Ohl, 6. He said they were passengers in an automobile operated by Harry Ohl, 46, the woman's husband and the girl's father, whose condition at Newcomb hospital was fair.

In New York, police reported the death last night of a young man identified from draft cards and other papers as Thomas J. Hynes of Jersey City. They said he fell from the eleventh floor of an office building.

ESSENTIAL FARM WORKER

Lancaster, Pa., Mar. 29 (AP)—Lester W. McCrabb, of Christiana, former pitcher for the Philadelphia Athletics and Montreal, has been classified by his draft board as a necessary farm worker. He has returned to his father's large dairy farm at Quarryville, where he works until entering professional baseball four years ago.

Merion, but they didn't drop. One of the seven missed was an easy "pigeon" layup by Vic Danilov, who probably could make such a shot in nine of ten occasions.

Altogether Farrell took 65 shots from the field, made 12. On the other hand Lower Merion took only 41 shots, but made just as many field goals.

This left the game to be decided from the foul line. Here the Ardmore Aces got five of nine while Farrell cashed only four of 13 chances.

On one occasion Farrell's star, Steve Skendrovich, dribbled in for a beautiful hook shot, but the officials nullified the goal, claiming he had fouled a second before he shot. Skendrovich then missed the free throw. With the score 28-24 Danilov likewise blew a free throw.

Ovation for Anderson

During Farrell's last workout on the spacious University of Pennsylvania Palestra floor Lewis "kidded" his players.

"You know," he said, "you fellows kept me from going out to Indiana. I had it all arranged to go out there and watch their high school tournament, but you boys had to go and win Mercer county title, then Erie East, Johnston and Scott, so here we are."

"I've heard so much about the Indiana schoolboy brand of basketball," he added to reporters. "But I doubt very much if they have as good teams as in Pennsylvania."

Bill Anderson, Lower Merion's "wonder coach" got a great ovation when he walked onto the floor before the game. It was impressive. After the game he was carried off the floor on the shoulders of wild-eyed students.

Miners Disagree On Negotiation Plans

New York, March 29 (AP)—Negotiations between the Southern Appalachian coal mine operators and the United Mine Workers neared a climax today with both sides still at odds over the method of extending negotiations upon expiration of the present contract at midnight Wednesday.

The southern operators have acceded to a UMW proposal to limit the extension for a 30-day period after termination of the present agreement. They added a proviso

FDR TO CONFER WITH DAVIS AND FARM LEADERS

BY OVID A. MARTIN

Washington, March 29 (AP)—President Roosevelt arranged to confer tomorrow with his new food administrator, Chester C. Davis, and leaders of four national farm organizations to draw up general plans for meeting farm labor and machinery shortages and for solving other food production problems.

Davis, who has been serving as president of the Federal Reserve Bank at St. Louis, arrived here last night and immediately began conferences with farm leaders.

Those invited to the White House meeting with Mr. Roosevelt included, besides Davis, Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, James G. Patton, president of the National Farmers' Union, Albert S. Goss, Master of the National Grange, and Ezra T. Benson, president of the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives.

These leaders said they expected the conference to settle the question of whether Davis would have the final word in determining administration policies on farm prices. O'Neal, Goss and Benson have declared that Davis would be greatly handicapped if he did not have complete authority in the price field.

May Succeed Wickard

Davis also will be asked to advise the Senate Appropriations committee what to do about recruiting labor for man-starved farms.

Reports were current meanwhile that Secretary Wickard might be assigned to another post in the administration. Several possibilities were mentioned including a possible diplomatic post, a special commission to coordinate the food production programs of the united nations, and "food chief" of this country's armed forces.

One report said Davis would succeed Wickard as Secretary of Agriculture as well as food administrator. Another said Davis did not want to serve as secretary, but would recommend the appointment of Dr. E. C. Aucther, director of the department's research administration, as Wickard's successor should the latter retire from the cabinet.

that any agreement hinge upon compliance with the economic stabilization act. This proviso was rejected by the miners.

Blast In Berlin Spurs 3000 Feet

London, March 29 (AP)—When RAF bombers sped back last night from a devastating assault on Berlin, Terry Goodwin, 22-year-old RAF sergeant-pilot from Wyncote, Pa., said it was his third trip over Berlin and one of the liveliest shows of his nearly two years' service with the RAF.

The tall, blond, mustached flier said in an interview: "I saw one terrific explosion. One of our 4,000-pounders must have dropped on a big gas holder or tank, because flames leaped at least 3,000 feet into the air."

Goodwin said no trouble was encountered from night fighters, but that ground defenses were fairly heavy. "Searchlights got our ship in their beam several times, but didn't hold us," he said.

Will Remove Many Relief Recipients

Harrisburg, March 29 (AP)—The majority of relief recipients receiving federal allowances from relatives in the armed forces will be dropped from assistance rolls, the relief department reports.

A survey of the Department of Public Assistance, Secretary Samuel Y. Ramage disclosed, indicates there are more than 2,000 cases which are on relief rolls temporarily, pending "receipt of the allowances which the federal government makes to dependents of members of the armed forces."

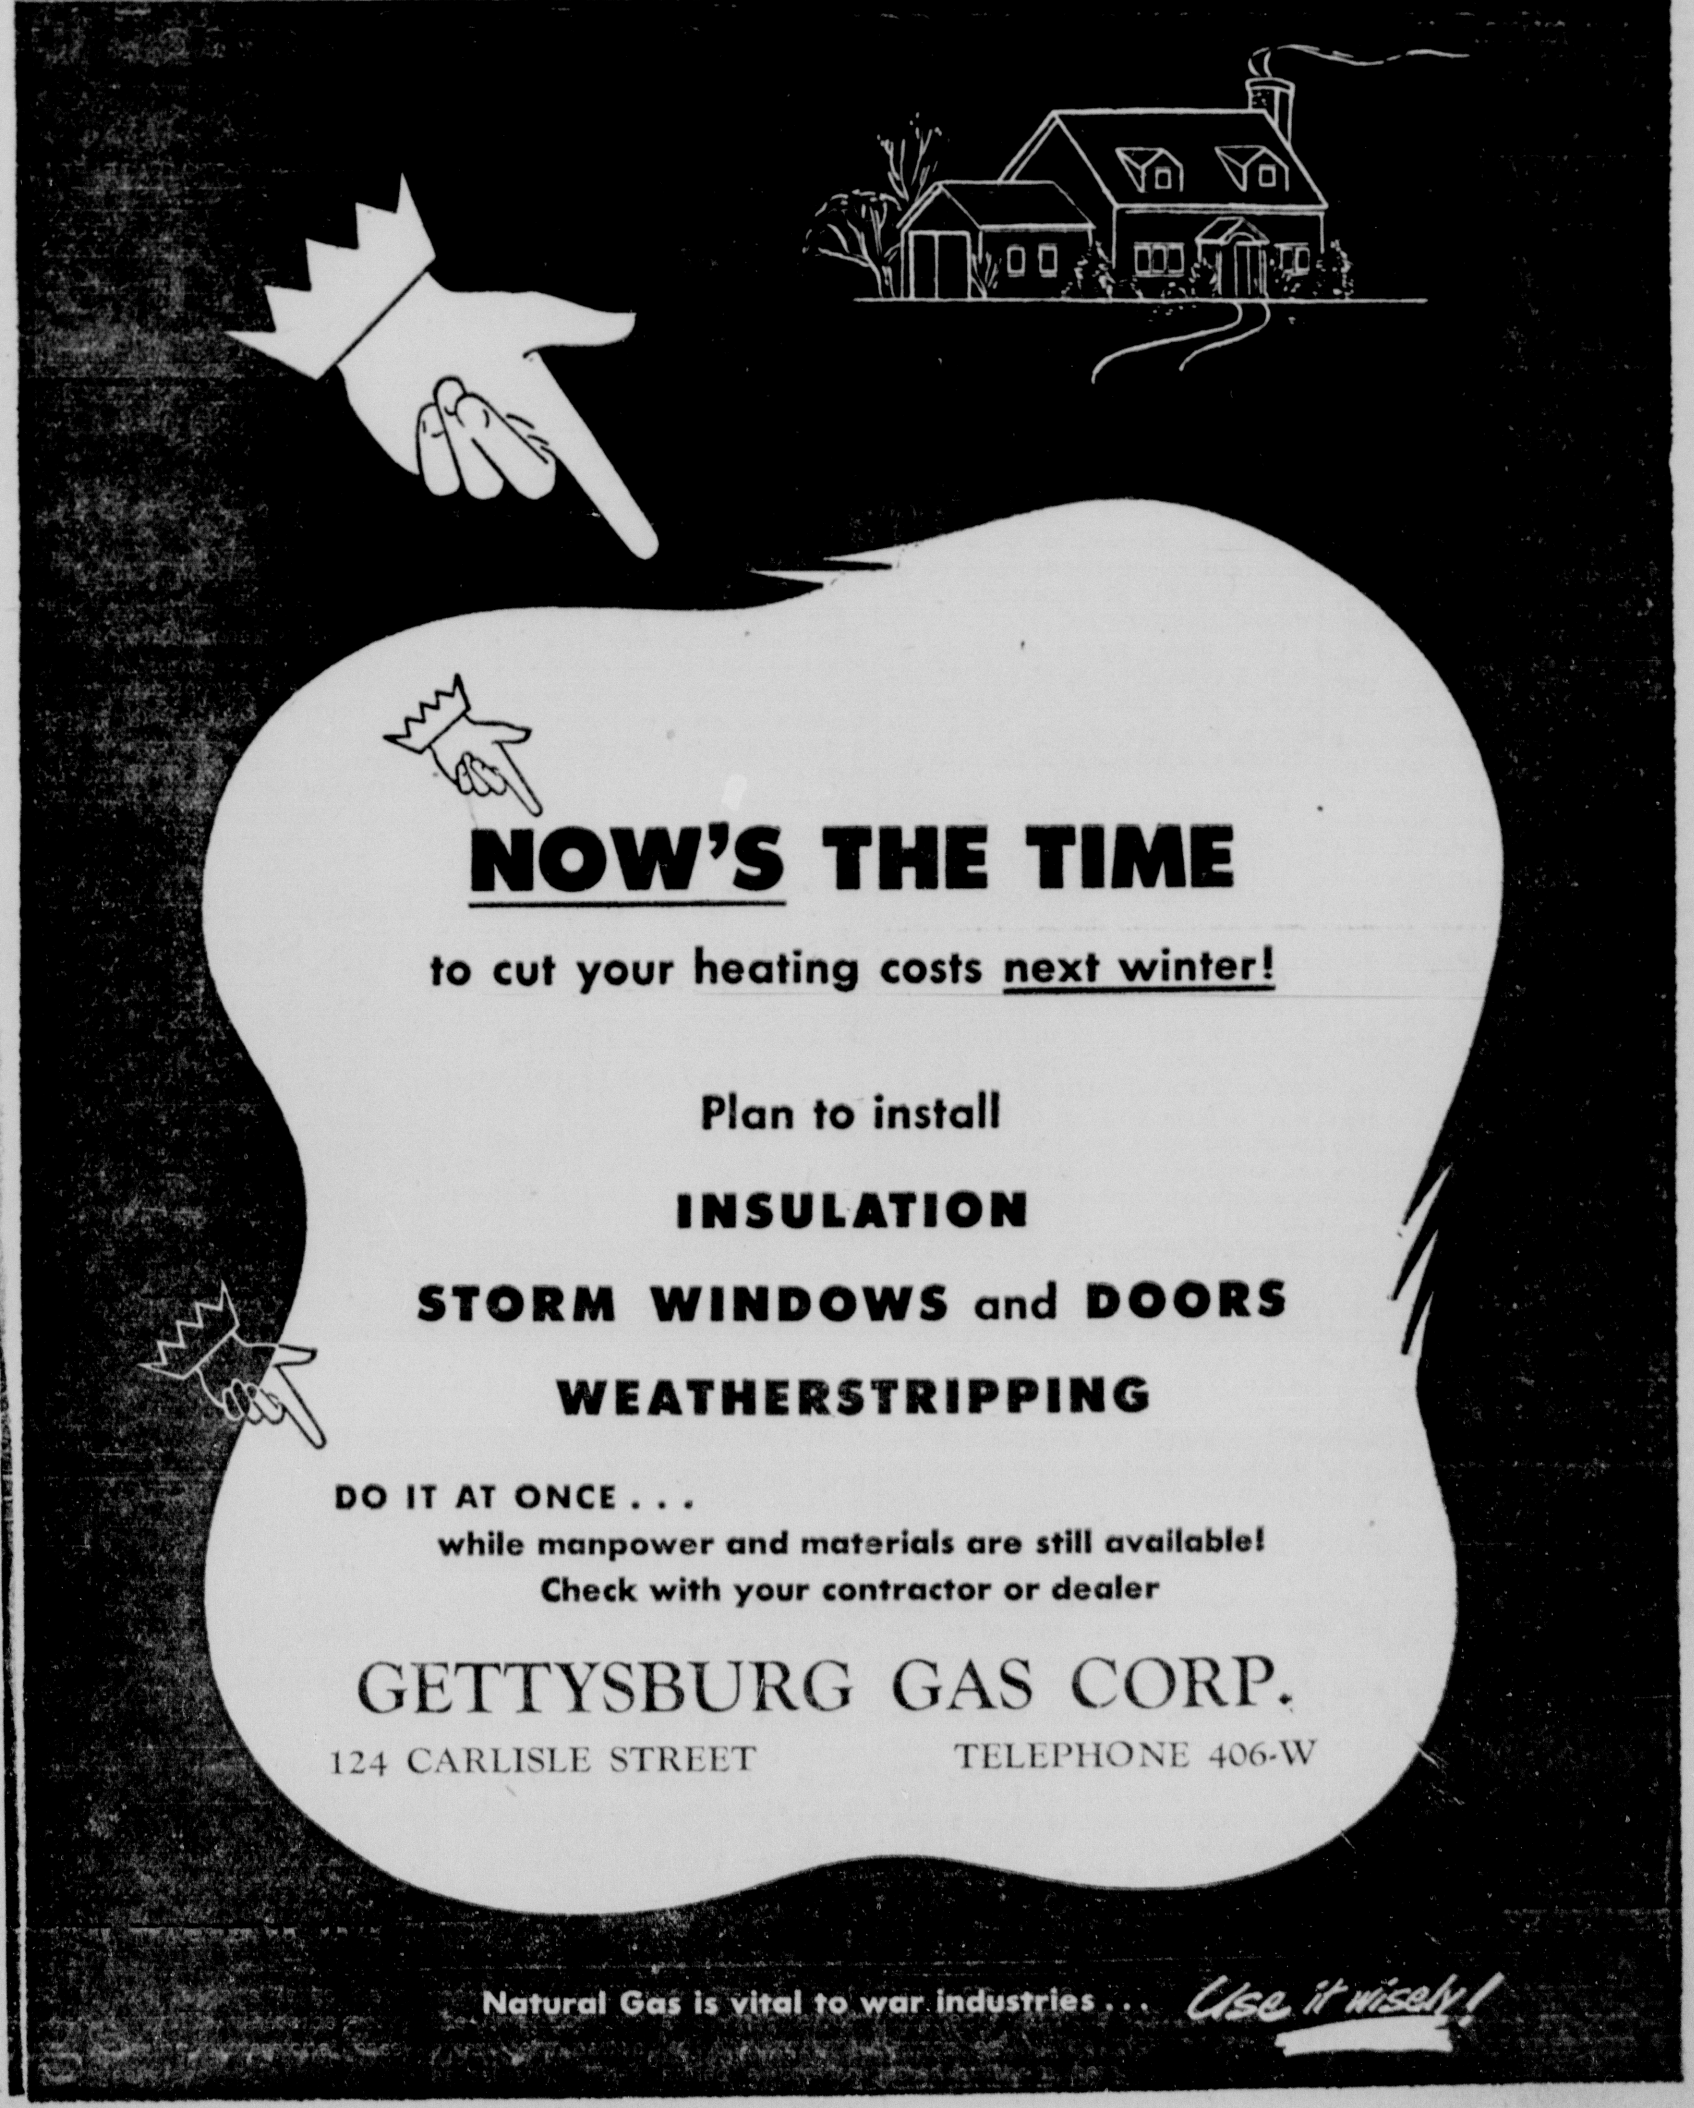

"The majority of these will be closed upon receipt of the allowance," Ramage added, "while in the remaining instances, receipt of the allowance will effect a substantial decrease in the amount of assistance needed."

General assistance cases fell to the 30,527 mark during the week ending March 20.

WOULD LIMIT DRILLS

Pittsburgh, March 29 (AP)—Chairman Ross L. Leffler of the Allegheny county Council of Defense has recommended abolition of air raid drills between 10:30 p. m. and midnight. In a letter to state Civilian Defense headquarters, Leffler said such drills interfere with the 11 and 12 o'clock shift changes in industrial plants.

Rationing Of

though balanced by the rationing of cheese.

Canned meats also went on the market again, with point values corresponding roughly to fresh meat coupon costs.

In the processed foods field, point values of juices were cut in half or deeper, in most cases, with the biggest benefits to the formerly popular 46 ounce cans, whose sale had come to a virtual standstill under rationing. This size can of pineapple or tomato juice was cut from 32 to 22 points, and all other canned fruit juices were trimmed, in this size, from 23 to 9 points. Grapefruit came down from 8 to 4 points per pint.

The popular No. 2 size can of dry beans, including baked beans, pork and beans, and kidney beans, which had been selling faster than stores could replenish for very long, was upped from 6 to 8 points per can. The same size of canned fresh lima beans was raised from 16 to 19 points, and tomato catsup and chili sauce were boosted from 8 to 10 points for the 14-ounce size.

Dehydrated soups got a 50 per cent reduction with the usual 2½-ounce package dropping from 4 to 2 points. Frozen foods were left unchanged in popular size packages, but some of the larger size containers were raised a point or two. Canned soups also were left unchanged, but tomato soup was set up in a separate classification in preparation for a possible differential between its value and other canned soup points.

Services Held For Mrs. J. F. Humbert

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Humbert, widow of James F. Humbert, was held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowers, Taneytown. Her pastor, the Rev. A. W. Garvin, officiated and interment was made in the Taneytown Reformed cemetery.

Mrs. Humbert died Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of her son, Lloyd R. Humbert, Littlestown. She was aged 75 years.

She was a daughter of the late Jacob and Barbara Rodkey. Her husband preceded her in death 13 years ago and since that she had been making her home with her children. She had lived at the home of her son since last November, and had been ill the past two weeks. Mrs. Humbert was a member of the Taneytown United Brethren church, being active in the Ladies' Aid society and the Women's Bible class.

Surviving her are two children, Mrs. Earl Bowers, Taneytown, and Lloyd R. Humbert, Littlestown; two sisters, Mrs. Ella Felts, Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Martha Lennon, Silver Run, Maryland; two brothers, Isaac Rodkey, Edmond, Okla., and William Rodkey, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Isolation Island

By JOHN C. FLEMING and LOIS EBY

Chapter 24

Don met them in the entrance hall. "Been looking everywhere for you!" he called. "Fuzzy has been insisting Jim knows an American dance we ought to learn. The Tom Jones, is it? They're all waiting for you."

"Paul Jones," said Jim dimly. "You know the dance, don't you, Linda?" Don urged. "Help him get it started."

It was quite a feat, teaching both orchestra and dancers the new rhythm. Linda was breathless when it was over, and she and Jim were surrounded by a congratulating group of crewmen.

Everything was suddenly cozy—like a party up at school. Linda thought, watching the crewmen with Jim and Don dripping punch and talking nonsense. Jim was telling tall tales like the night they had been frightened by the sub on the little freighter.

Her mind flashed back over that eventful trip. She remembered the day she first saw Jim standing by the rail. Jim wasn't looking at her, yet abruptly she knew he was thinking of these things too. Something warned her a little later when she saw him slip out the side door. She went after him.

"So you weren't going to say goodbye," she accused him. "I said it to Don," he grinned unsteadily. "I thought that would be just as good."

"Well, it wasn't," she retorted. She turned and walked in silence beside him along the jungle path. She slipped her small brown hand in his. Between them flowed a sudden peaceful current of understanding—a surging buoyancy. They came out on the white strip of beach to the water's edge.

"Goodbye, Jim," her eyes turned toward his were misted with tears. "Goodbye," he grinned down at her and patted her arm. She could feel the tension and the effort behind the gesture. "And just remember if you ever get restless down here," he added, "that you're living the kind of life ninety-nine guys out of a hundred would give their eye teeth to live. Good luck."

"Good luck to you," Linda whispered. She had turned toward the jungle path when she heard his exclamation. She whirled back. He was standing by the dinghy looking out at the Sea Bat.

"What is it?" she asked. "Do you see anything?" he demanded.

She retraced her steps across the sand to stand beside him, fixed her gaze on the indistinct boat. On the dark shadowed deck a glint of moonlight on steel flickered.

"It looks like Cass has the diving dress on," muttered Jim. "But that's silly."

Then Linda whispered, "Look! Didn't you see something—yes! Another man—slipping around the end of the hatch. He came up the companionway."

Jim's voice was tight. "You sure? There's only supposed to be one man on that boat." He was unfastening the dinghy with impatient speed. As he pushed it from its berth Linda leaped into it. "I'm going with you," she said.

He frowned. "No you're not." "Hurry up," she urged. "Give it a push!" She was already pulling on the oars. Jim gave in to her. He pushed the stern through the swells until the water was waist high, then pulled himself into the boat.

"Sit in the stern," he took over her oars. Linda watched the Sea Bat as they moved toward it. Dark figures were plainly visible now. "They've seen us, I think," she whispered.

Abruptly the quiet was broken by the roar of a powerful engine. An instant later a fast speedboat shot out from the far side of the Sea Bat toward the open sea.

Jim cursed as he strained at the oars. At last the bow of the dinghy thudded against the side of the Sea Bat. He led the way up the rope ladder, stumbled across the empty diving suit on the deck and rushed down the companionway. Cass Wilson was a dark heap on the cabin floor. Jim lit a candle and they untied him and took out his gag.

Cass stared at them through bloodshot eyes. "What happened?" Jim cried. Cass shook his head. "A boat came," he said thickly. "They called up—said they were—from the party—they came aboard—and conked me... that's all."

Jim, his face tight, crossed to a smashed cabinet in the far wall, searched it, then turned. "They got it," he cried. "Every last foot of the film we took. The dirty—" The fury in his eyes was abruptly quenched beneath fresh fear. He turned and ran up the deck.

Linda helped the dizzy Cass to his feet and they followed. Jim was on his knees beside the diving dress. In one hand he held some long, round objects.

"Dynamite," he said grimly. "You don't know how long they were up here, Cass? If they had time to get down to that sub?"

Cass shook his head. Jim was putting on the diving dress, his jaw tightened into a hard line. "If they've gone down and blown up the torpedo section, we're finished. Take charge of the compressor, Cass." Ignoring Cass' and Linda's arguments, he pulled the metal helmet into place and lowered himself into the water.

The tank-tank of the compressor engine rent the air. A steady chain of bubbles rose in his wake as his dark form slipped farther below the surface. Linda, leaning over the rail, felt a chill of foreboding.

"He must be down," she could hear Cass' labored breathing. Then suddenly she heard it catch. She glanced up to see his eyes on the surface of the water, horror on his face.

"Look at that life line," he gasped. "It's leaking like a sieve. Those devils—they must have used acid—it starts working on rubber after it gets wet."

A $25 SALARY LOAN

REPAID IN 10 DAYS COSTS ONLY 25¢

No endorsers needed—Borrow on your earning ability—Charges made only for the time you have the money

SHORT OF CASH? If you have a steady job, you should investigate Household's salary loan plan. This plan offers a quick, simple way for men and women who are working to borrow at reasonable cost. No endorsers are ever needed. You borrow on your earning ability and willing to repay. We also make car and furniture loans. Even when making these loans we consider character and regular income more important than the borrower's security.

Choose your own plan

You may repay a loan in a few days or in a number of monthly installments—whichever best suits your needs. Charges are made only for the actual time you have the money. At our rate of 3% per month, a $25 loan costs $1.52 when repaid in three monthly installments, but only 18¢ when repaid at the end of a week. A $50 loan repaid in four monthly installments of $13.45 each costs $3.80—or if repaid in one month costs $1.50.

Solve money problems here

Getting a loan at Household is a quick, private transaction—we require no endorsers or guarantors. The table below shows many sample monthly payment plans—we can fit our service to your needs. All payments include principal and interest.

You may get a Household loan to pay your doctor or dentist, insurance or taxes, old store bills, repairs, union fees—for almost any purpose. If you need money, phone, write or visit Household Finance.
